

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions in promoting a specific political party are unacceptable. The media has a responsibility to the democratic process that they are currently failing miserably at as a whole. However, the proposal by Sinclair to broadcast a political ad to further their own objectives clearly crosses the line.

Apparently, their proposal has been "revised" to be a "news program". Please, keep them honest.